Why Our Insiders Chose This Tour

For springtime visitors, this is a fabulous deal. Hit the highlights in Amsterdam before feasting your eyes on the unforgettable tulip fields of the Netherlands.

What You Can Expect

Your Amsterdam Super Saver 1: Keukenhof Gardens Day Trip and Amsterdam City Tour not only saves you money—it'll also save you the time and headache of planning on your own! Kick the morning off with a two-and-a-half-hour coach ride through Amsterdam, past some of the city's top attractions. You'll see the Royal Palace, Skinny Bridge, National Monument and even the UNESCO World Heritage-listed canals. See iconic Dutch windmills that line the Amstel River and visit a diamond factory, too! Your morning even includes two hours to explore on foot and enjoy lunch (own expense) before the afternoon experience.

Discover Amsterdam highlights during your city tour

Once you've seen the city, you'll hop aboard your coach and spend 45 minutes driving through the Dutch countryside. You'll make your way to Keukenhof Gardens. Follow your friendly and local guide on a walking tour of this famous attraction as you wander past placid ponds, streams and winding paths lined with tulips, daffodils and bluebells. When the tour ends, you'll have three hours to explore on your own. Enjoy some time at the café (own expense) or check out special exhibits in the nearby pavilion. The tour ends with a return trip to Amsterdam and evening arrival in the city.

We loved the Gardens and it was definitely the highlight. The city tour was also very nice.

This is an incredible way to spend a day in Amsterdam. The Gardens, although only open in the spring, are not to be missed. The Viator drivers and tour guides are reliable and friendly. We will book with Biator wherever we travel.
